

The Family Owned Restaurant:

By T-- Y----

--- --- was opened together by the Y-- brothers. The five brothers immigrated to ----- in the late 1980s. Most often the newly immigrated Chinese do not know much English and the typical job for a newly immigrated Chinese person was to work in a Chinese restaurant or to open one. The people who are still learning English work in the back and help prepare the food, wrap things up, or clean. The immigrants who know English already usually work in the front taking orders and answer take carry-out calls. The Y-- brothers eventually were able to pitch in money and open up --- --- located on ---- ----- Ave., -----, --- --- is located near the heart of ----- Sq. It was opened between the early 1990s to the mid 1990s. The restaurant was under the management of each Y--- brother over the past few years. The owner of the restaurant has been changed so that the 3rd eldest brother, D--- Y---, now owns --- ---.
